

LARKIN SNOW AND ZENAS SHAW.

MAY 18, 1860.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. ELIOT, from the Committee on Commerce, made the following REPORT.

The Committee on Commerce, to whom was referred the memorial of Larkin Snow and Zenas Shaw, owner and master of the schooner "Lucy Blake," of Rockland, Maine, reports :

That the said schooner violated the revenue laws by sailing from the port of New York without a certified manifest, as required by law.

An examination shows that the course pointed out by law and the Treasury regulations as necessary preliminary to the remission of any penalty has not yet been pursued by the memorialists, and without expressing any opinion as to the merits of the case, I am instructed to ask a discharge from the further consideration thereof, and until the matter is brought legally before the remitting power.

